Holds Barred Plan To Sell Anything With Webinars Online Media Speeches

The business titans and #1 New York Times and Wall Street Journal bestselling authors of Winning return with a modern, essential guide for everyone in business today—and tomorrow—that explores the most pressing challenges related to creating winning strategies, leading and managing others, and building a thriving career. In the decade since their blockbuster international bestseller Winning was published, Jack and Suzy Welch have dug deeper into business, traveling the world consulting to organizations of every size and in every industry, speaking to hundreds of audiences, working closely with entrepreneurs from Mumbai to Silicon Valley, and, in 2010, starting their own fully accredited online MBA program, which now has approximately 1,000 students enrolled. Over the same time frame, Jack has advised more than seventy-five companies through private equity, and dozens more in a senior advisory role at IAC. Now, Jack and Suzy Welch draw on their experiences to address the biggest problems facing modern management—and offer pragmatic solutions to overcome them. Going beyond theories, concepts, and ideologies, they tackle the real stuff of work today. When you get down to it, they argue, winning in business is all about mastering the gritty, inescapable, make-or-break, real-life dilemmas that define the new economy, the old economy, and everything in between. Work is a grind. We just got whacked. My boss is driving me nuts. I'm stuck in career purgatory. My team has lost its mojo. It is holding us hostage. Our strategy is outdated. We don't know what our Chinese partners are talking about. We're just not growing. These are some of the day-to-day issues the Welch's take on. Coupled with Jack's years of iconic leadership and Suzy's insights as former editor of the Harvard Business Review, their new database of knowledge infuses the Real Life MBA with fresh, relevant stories and equally powerful solutions that every manager at any level can use right now.

Millionaire maker Dan S. Kennedy and local-level marketing specialist Jeff Slutsky empower small business owners to take on big box companies and distant distributors using their best asset—their ability to bond directly with their customers. Small business entrepreneurs are armed to go "grassroots" given winning strategies to take their marketing to the street level resulting in higher customer retention, greater referrals, and a thriving business for the long-term. About the Book Kennedy and Slutsky dare small business owners to break free of the ingrained tendencies to "advertise when you need more customers" and to copy what they see big, national companies doing. Local business owners are urged to add some politicking to their business presence, focusing their marketing on directly connecting with their customers, integrating them into their community and even, their daily activities. Kennedy and Slutsky deliver creative, high impact alternatives and supplements to disappointing traditional advertising and new media including strategies for gaining free advertising from local news media, creating events that multiply customers, and effectively using direct mail. Small business owners also uncover surefire tactics that capitalize on their social media presence, the four walls of their business, and the internet, reaching their local customers and creating a sense of a personal relationship. Throughout their lesson in going grassroots, Kennedy and Slutsky also reveal the nine inconvenient truths of grassroots marketing, keeping small business owners on track and on their way local business stardom. Features • Presents a marketing approach specifically engineered for small (local) businesses • Reveals 9 No B.S. inconvenient truths and how to implement them • Illustrates concepts with examples from practicing business owners • From Dan Kennedy, author of the popular No B.S. books including No B.S. series, which shipped more than 250,000 copies • Identifies what's wrong with traditional and new media advertising • Offers methodology to break free from ingrained tendencies and copycat marketingEveryone's Talking About It. But Nobody Knows What They're Talking About. Social Media Examiner's 2018 Social Media Marketing Industry Report found that only 10% of respondents strongly agree that they can measure ROI yet half of them will dedicate increased time and money to social media marketing instead of cutting back. Millionaire maker Dan S. Kennedy, joined by marketing strategist Kim Walsh Phillips, tells it like it is: If you're not focusing on converting traffic into sales, you might as well set your money on fire. Kennedy and Walsh Phillips open up their playbook and show you how to stop being a social media victim and accepting non-monetizable "likes" and "shares" as a return on your time, money, and energy and start using your platform for its true purpose—another channel to reach customers, gain leads and make sales. Learn how to: Turn passive content into an active conversion tool Become a lead magnet with social media profiles that focus on the needs of ideal prospects (not the product or service) Create raving fans who introduce you to their networks Turn niches into riches, laser in on your perfect prospects and ignore the "fire kickers" Harness the biggest secret in social media—offline Discover the principles behind successful marketing campaigns and start making dollars and cents out of your social media strategy. "Millionaire maker Dan S. Kennedy and co-founders of Iron Tribe Fitness, Forest Walden and Jim Cavale, debunk branding lies and myths and reveal the truth behind the power, value, creation, and care and feeding of brand identity for products, services, small businesses, and entrepreneurs."—Revised edition of the author's No B.S. ruthless management of people & profits, published in 2008.
